

Winter Nature Programs

Wolfe's Neck Woods State Park

426 Wolf Neck Rd., Freeport, Maine (207) 865-4465

Guided nature programs, free with park admission, as scheduled through February 24 at Wolfe's Neck Woods State Park. Starting at 2:00 p.m. at the benches by the second parking lot, weather permitting. One hour programs may include walks, short talks, and activities in a beautiful natural setting. No reservations needed, except for group programs. Please call the park at (207) 865-4465 the day of the program, after 10:00 a.m., for updates on the programs and trail conditions.

January

- 6 Winter in the Woods - Increase your understanding and appreciation of some of the ways in which plants and animals survive winter.
- 13 Animals Wintering - Add to your knowledge and appreciation of the ways in which the park's animals survive winter.
- 20 Winter Trees and Shrubs - Find out how to identify trees and shrubs in the winter and how they provide food and shelter for animals.
- 27 Winter Birds at Wolfe's Neck - Discover the needs and adaptations of the park's birds and the ways in which people can help birds around their homes survive winter.

February

- 3 Mammals of Maine – Add to your knowledge and appreciation of the ways in which the park's mammals survive winter.
- 10 Plants Alive in a Cold World - Learn the strategies of the park's plants for surviving winter.
- 17 Winter in the Woods – Increase your understanding and appreciation of some of the ways in which plants and animals survive winter.
- 24 Nature Legends - Enjoy this short walk on the White Pines Trail with stops for stories based on Wabanaki legends.

Maine Department of Conservation
Bureau of Parks and Lands

